1. Consent to Participate

I voluntarily choose to participate in the 2026/2027 EC Day Challenge as a member of a three-person team. I understand that this is a competitive academic initiative and I agree to engage with it in a spirit of intellectual rigour, respect, and collaboration.

2. Eligibility

I confirm that:

- I am currently enrolled at an accredited higher education institution in the UK, France, or the US.
- I meet all eligibility requirements set out in the 2026/2027 EC Day Student Handbook, including that my graduation date falls after the conclusion of the competition in April 2027.
- I have not deferred or interrupted my studies for more than three months.

3. Academic Integrity and Ethics

I confirm that:

- I will not engage in, plagiarism, contract cheating, data fabrication, or any other form of academic misconduct.

- I understand that the use of AI tools (such as large language models) to generate text, images, or data in the report must be disclosed to the EC Day Board in advance and acknowledged transparently in the report itself.

4. Publication and Media Consent

I acknowledge and consent to the following:

- My name, institution, and likeness (photographs or video) may be used by the organisers for EC Day Challenge reporting and promotional purposes.
- If my team's report is selected among the top ten, it will be published on the EC Day website under a Creative Commons Attribution 4.0 International (CC BY 4.0) licence. I retain the right to publish or adapt the work elsewhere, provided the EC Day Challenge is credited and the organisers are informed in advance.

5. Privacy and Data Use

I consent to the collection and use of my personal data (name, contact details, institution) for administrative, evaluative, and promotional purposes directly related to the EC Day Challenge. My data will be handled in accordance with the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and will not be shared with third parties beyond what is necessary for the running of the competition. I understand that I may access, correct, or request deletion of my data at any time by contacting info@ententecordialeday.org.

Declaration: I confirm that I have read and understood this form and the 2026/2027 EC Day Student Handbook, and that all information I have provided is accurate and complete.
